

Place-Based Strategies: Pine Beetles & Forest Health

– A Best Practices Symposium –

Dec. 17, 2009 – Hotel Jerome Ballroom, Aspen, CO

PRESENTERS & MODERATORS

(updated 12/10/09)

Suzanne Adams, Beetle Busters, Boulder, Colorado

Jerry Bauer, Forestry & Pine Beetle Consultant, Grand Prairie, Alberta

Al Burnham, Crystal Gardens, Redstone, Colorado

Rick Cables, Rocky Mountain Regional Forester, U.S. Forest Service

Allan Carroll, PhD, Associate Professor, Forest Sciences Department, University of British Columbia

Patti Clapper, Chair, Pitkin County Commissioners. Chair, Northwest Colorado Council of Governments (NWCCOG)

Lance Clark, Assistant Director, Pitkin County Community Development

Carol Ekarius, Director, Coalition for the Upper South Platte. Partner, Woodland Park Healthy Forest Initiative

Scott Fitzwilliams, Supervisor, White River National Forest, U.S. Forest Service

Nancy Gillette, PhD, Principal Research Entomologist, Pacific Southwest Research Station, U.S. Forest Service

Therese Glowacki, Resource Management Manager, Boulder County Parks & Open Space. The Boulder County Open Space Biomass System.

Tom Lacey, Senior Forest Protection Officer, City of Merritt, British Columbia

Eric Petterson, Principal Ecologist, Rocky Mountain Ecological Services, Glenwood Springs, CO

Michael Powelson, Director of Government Relations, Western Division, The Nature Conservancy

Governor Bill Ritter, Governor of Colorado

Scott Zurn, PE, Public Works Director, City of Estes Park. Founder, Estes Park Beetle Busters

John Bennett, Executive Director, For The Forest